President McKay displays his great big Millikin smile.

President and Mrs. McKay greet hundreds of students in their home at their annual fall open house.

President McKay

Speeches and meetings occupy much of President McKay's time, but he always finds a minute to hear about a problem or discuss a new idea at Millikin.

As plans for the new Fine Arts Center are underway, President McKay reviews drawings and checks final details.

Freshman Camp . . .

Shortly after getting settled in rooms, the freshman class left for Allerton Park on September 9, to spend two days learning about each other and Millikin.

The first day consisted of games and getting to know each other. In the evening there was a pep rally, square dancing, and a welcome by President McKay. The burning of the "M" solemnly ended the evening's activities.

Epilogue

With the final deadline met, all those who have shared in the " '68 Millidek" heave a final sigh of relief. As the book is completed, many memories of the year remain — the cries for pictures and copy, the near hysteria, and the cooperation of our staff.

Thank you seems very insufficient for all the hours that you have given us. But we would like to say a special thanks to:

Mr. Richard Ferry, our advisor, who was there when we needed advice and our nerves needed calming.

Mr. Don Kilman and Anchor Publishing Company whose aid and assistance made it all possible.
Paul Buck who spent many late nights getting just the "right" picture.

Our Associate Editors — Mary Lou Chao, Kathie Emelander, Linda Hascall, Kathy Kile, Gretchen Greider, Cynthia McIlwain, Buff Thompson, Barb Vix, Barb Chasteen, Charlie Rapp, and John Day.

This year has been an unusual one — one which we will never forget. We have learned many things about the technical aspects of laying out a yearbook, and even more about working with people. But even now after experiencing all the problems and headaches, we are glad we did it.

It is our sincere hope, as editors, that we have given you a student-oriented Millidek depicting life at Millikin during the past year. May you find something special within these pages to help you remember M.U. in future years.
